Questions

Do the three-month packages have to be paid for up front?

While this is the easiest way to pay, there are monthly payment plans available. In these cases, one-third payment will be due immediately, with the following two equal payments paid over the next two months.

What if I want a package deal that isn't listed here?

Contact us. We can figure out something that works perfectly for you.

When do ad periods begin?

We prefer to start ads on the first of the month or mid-month. But we're flexible since web is a fast-paced medium.
